They have many interesting and helpful programs.
Including online magazines and passes to MOMA and others.

The Fort Lee Library has a program of books on wheels. You can join and have books brought to your home if you cannot get to the library.

A FREE service available to Fort Lee cardholders (Fort Lee & Englewood Cliffs residents) who are unable to travel to the Library due to illness or disability. To register or become a volunteer, contact: jeanette.shelley@fortlee.bccls.org or call 201-592-3614 ext.4001.

Your board and especially Giovanna work very hard to plan activities for the members. Please support our activities. They are created for you to be able to get out and see friends and have a nice day.

Again, please submit your email address and cell phone number to the board for emergencies. This will not be for distribution but for club issues. We have had mix-ups with car pools at times and sometimes it would be helpful to send an e-mail to members about club business. The information would be kept by the board only.
